

Good news

Swindon's Great Western Hospital seeks nurses for Children's Ward and Special Care Baby Unit

This week the Swindon Advertiser has helped us promote a recruitment event aimed at nurses interested in working in the Children's Unit or the Special Care Baby Unit.

The event is planned for Saturday 24 June from 10am until 3pm and those who attend will be able to hear about the roles available, tour the units and chat with staff.

Nurses without paediatric qualifications are also encouraged to attend as successful candidates will be given full training.

Interviews will be held on the day, however candidates must apply in advance using the national NHS Jobs website, www.jobs.nhs.uk.

---

Brighter Futures: Bike to Work Week is the perfect start

In our weekly double page spread in the Swindon Advertiser we shared information on National Bike to Work Week, while encouraging local people to take on the Ride for Radiotherapy challenge in September.

Bike to Work Week is a nationwide initiative aimed at getting people more active, and the Brighter Futures Team is making the most of it.

The Ride for Radiotherapy involves either a 20, 45 or 70 mile route around the scenic county of Wiltshire.

---

Brighter Futures: Band to take to the stage for radiotherapy

The Swindon Advertiser reported on an upcoming event by Swindon Concert Band taking place at the Memorial Hall in Royal Wooten Bassett on Saturday July 1, in aid of Brighter Futures' Radiotherapy Appeal.

The 40-piece band, which describes itself as “a vibrant and award-winning amateur wind band,” will wow audiences with classic tunes from Gershwin and Glenn Miller, to name just a couple in the repertoire.

Tickets cost £8 for adults and children are free if accompanied by an adult. Email tickets@swindonconcertband.co.uk

---

Other

Cash fails to hit spot

A letter commenting on government spending on the NHS was included in the Swindon Advertiser and the Gazette and Herald on 12 June.

The letter mentioned how some NHS buildings are being transferred to NHS Property Services, including some of community hospital buildings in Wiltshire.

Help spread the news

Please pass this message on to your colleagues.

Copyright ©2017 Great Western Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust. All rights reserved.